

My request around times of difficulty or struggle

If you are ever worried about me or you think I might be struggling with my mental health, this is how I would like you to talk with me about your concerns.

You can remind me of:

Please don't:

You can support me to:

